WILLIAM ROBERTS'S PISTOL HE IS JUNT DRUNK KNOUGH TO FIRE IT OFF TO MAKE A NOISE

The Bullet Goes Through a Front Door, and Hits His Friend's Wile, Inflicting as it is Supposed, a Mortal Wound, Mrs. Hattle Allabach, aged 22, and very pretty, was shot and probably mortally wounded at her residence, 89 Havemeyer street, Brooklyn, E. D., shortly after daybreak yesterday morning, because she refused to swaken her husband at the request of four of his friends.

She and her husband. Harry Allabach, occupied the second floor of the building, a twotory attic and basement house. They are both members of various social societies and they spent Monday night at the annual reception of the J. R. Burnham Association in Webster Hall, Eleventh street, this city. Among their friends from the Eastern District of Brooklyn who participated in the festivities of the occasion were John J. O'Brien, the standciety of the Fourteenth ward; William Roberts, a saloon keeper; Henry Babbington, and Havermeyer street. Harry Allabach is the President of the John J. O'Brien Society and the other men are officers of it. They are close and intimate friends. Aliabach isla truck driver employed by Kelly & Flaherty, and has to go to his work early in the morning.

With this end in view he induced his wife to have Webster Hall without waiting for their mends and went home to enjoy a couple of bours' sleep. They walked to the Grand Street Ferry to Broadway, Williamsburgh, and reached their apartments a little after 4:30. Allabach went to bed and soon fell asleen. Mrs. Alla-bach, divesting herself of her ball costume, put an a loose wrapper and began to prepare the breakfast. Her husband had to report for duty ninutes and Mr. Allabach was sleeping soundwhen the woman heard cries of Harry!" and immediately afterward a loud ringing at the hall door. She ran to the front ringing at the hall door. She ran to the front room and looking out of the window saw o'Brien. Roberts, Mace, and Babbington. She asked them what was the matter, and they said they wanted her husband to come and have a good time around at Roberts's saloon. Mrs. Allabach told them her husband was asleen and should not be disturbed. Then she went back to her room and continued her cull-nary labors.

The visitors were not satisfied with the reception accorded them, and began kicking and pounding on the door. They had broken off the handle of the bell on their first onslaugh.
Mrs. Aliabach. fearful that they would break the door in, went down to try and induce them to so away quietly. She opened the door and spisined that her husband had to go to work shortly and needed some rest. The callers, who were all slightly unier the influence of liquor, became ankry at the explanation, and declared that Harry must come and have a drink. Mrs. Allabach got angry in her turn, and, saying that they should not see Mr. Aliabach until be had had his sleep out, slammed the door in their faces and turned to go up stars. She had ascended about haf a dozen steps when she heard the crack of a histol shot stairs. She had ascended about had a dozen stops when she heard the crack of a pistol shot and fell to the floor with a bullet in her back. The noise of the hammering on the door and eithe shot aroused the neighborhood, and a small crowd soon collected. The four young men continued their loud talk and declared that they would not go away until Aliabach came out. Mr. Sagood, the owner of the Haveneyer street house, and the occupant of the lower portion of it, assisted Mr. Allabach to lower portion of it, assisted Mr. Allabach to fourly his while to her room, and then ran to forth Second street and turned in a call for an ambulance.

It was not until they saw the commotion and heard that a doctor was needed that the paid to wake Allabach and make him come dewn stairs. Mr. Allabach believed the state-gent, and insisted that it was all an accident, he said that lioberts was one of his best frends, and must have been drunk when he fined the shot. He knew he had no object in soming to the house but to invite him out to have a good time. Roberts was held without ball to await the result of his victim's injuries. The other three men went to jall in default of $500 ball to ap-bear as witnesses for the people.

Christmas Sale of the Decorative Art So.

There is an alluring exhibition of decorative art work just now at 255 Fifth avenue, and women flock to the exhibition hall. It is the women flock to the exhibition hall. It is the special Christmas sale of the Society of Decorative Art, and will be continued throughout this week for special and worthy purposes of the society. The sale is conducted under the supervision of Mrs. W. F. Bridge. Miss Edgar. Ars. F. N. Goddard, Mrs. Richard N. Hunt. Mrs. Rehard N. Irvin, Mrs. Frances P. Kinnigut. Mrs. George II. Morgan. Miss Newbold, Miss J. W. Pinchott Miss Robbins, Mrs. A. B. Btone, and Mrs. Frederic R. Sturgis.

Mr. Luengene Also Rejected. The Membership Committee of the Union

League Club of Brooklyn has followed its renembership by the exclusion of Charles H. Luengene, another somewhat prominent Republican of the city. The committee did not great him so considerately as it did Senator Birkett, for it did not give his friends a chance to withdraw his name. It simply sont back his initiation fee and application for membership. Mr. Luengene is a warm friend and supporter of Ernest Nathan, and he thinks the opposite faction in the club had something to do with his rejection.

A $6,000,000 Celluloid Company. A celluloid company with a capital of $6, 00,000 was incorporated in Newark resterday by John A. Barlow of Astoria, N. Y.; Joseph Larceuse, Marshai C. Lefferts, Joseph M. Cook, Solomon Hanford, H. C. Tinker, Fred-erick Lefferts, William L. Brown and C. L. Balck of this city, and John W. Hyatt, J. W. Flume, J. H. Ballantine, and George Wilkin.

WHERE BORS JOHN A. MORRIS LIVE? Louisiana Lottery Profits Offer a Rich

Whether John A. Morris is a resident of New York or of Louisiana is being inquired into in the United States Circuit Court in a suit brought by the heirs of Isaac Bernstein against Charles H. Murray & Co., the Louisiana Lot-tery Company, and Mr. Morris for an accounting of the profits of the lottery, of which the plaintiffs claim a share amounting to between we and six millions of dollars, Mr. Morris says he is a resident of this State, and unless the plaintiffs prove the contrary the United States Court has no jurisdiction, Col. F. F. Wilder, one of the incorporators of the Louisiana Lottery Company, and formerly its Secretary and Treasurer, was called as a witness for the plainting yesterday. He testi-fled that he became acquainted with John A. Morris in 1868. That was in New Orleans, While the witness was an officer of the lottery company in 1869, 1870, and 1871, he saw Mr.

Morris almost daily at the office of the company, Mr. Morris then lived with his wife and family in New Orleans. The witness described the various real estate properties owned by Modris in New Orleans—his residence on Rampart street, a residence on St. Charles avenue, an office building on Carnustreet, and an office building on Carnustreet, and Morris last winter, when the witness was in New Orleans, lived in the St. Charles avenue residence. Mr. Morris was then still engaged in the St. Charles avenue residence, Mr. Morris was then still engaged in the Juttery business. Mr. Morris was a member lof several social clubs in New Orleans and has a family burial plot there. The witness never knew Mr. Morris to intimate that he was a resident of any other place than New Orleans, Mr. Morris house on St. Charles avenue was a grand and beautiful one. When it was opened Mr. Morris 130,000 or 340,000.

Mr. Wilder was cross-examined by Francis Lynde Stetson, Grover Cleveland's law partner, of counsel for the defendants. He elicited that the witness knew nothing of the ownership of property in New Orleans by Mr. Morris except from hearsay. The hearing will go on on Dec. 19.

An Actress Herself, and Wife of Water-

Florence Sherwood, an actress by profession, and the wife of Asa R. Waterman. who sho l'eter Doran in Williamsburgh last spring received as an insane patient at Bellevue Hosoital yesterday afternoon. She had ing in a furnished room at 251 West Fouring in a jurnished room at 251 west Fourteenth street with her five-year-old daughter Grace. who plays the child of the hero and heroine in "Blue Jeans" at the Fourteenth Street Theatre-Ell Three weeks ago last Sunday night the mother entertained friends, and on the next day she complained of a headache, Delirium developed, but Mrs. Waterman did not become violent until last Sunday. Then she attempted to hammer her head with a bottie of vichy water and other articles that were in the room. Her lather, who lives in Philadelphia, was telegraphed for, and upon his arrival yesterday morning it was decided to remove her to Bellevue.

Mrs. Waterman was one of the three Sherwood sisters, song and dance artists. The others of the tric were Blanche and Grace, both of whom married actors. The latter took Laurs Burt's part in "Blue Jeans" a short time ago, while Miss Burt supplied the rôle temporarily vacated by Miss Jennie Yeamans's iliness. Grace h reelf is ill at present at 178 Sixth avenue. Mrs. Waterman has been using sedative drugs a good deal. She was married when but 16 years old. Her husband shot Peter Doran on April 19 while out walking with Doran's wife. He was tried in Brooklyn recently, and on Nov. 14 the jury disagreed. teenth street with her five-year-old daughter

ST. JOHN, N. R. Nov. 25 .- At South Bay this norning the boilers in I. D. Sutton's mill exploded, killing six men. Several others were so seriously injured that they are not expected to live. The water in the boilers was low. The water was turned on and the person in charge neglected to turn to off, with the result that the boilers overflowed and expleded. One boiler went through the end of the mill to the bay, a distance of 500 feet, while the other landed on a hill 100 yards distant. An old man named Henry Kaird went into the building a few minutes before the explosion to dry himself, climbing on top of the boilers. He was carried with the boiler that went into the bay and was torn to pieces.

Admits That He Attempted Suicide. BORDESTOWN, Nov. 25.-Bernard Schiff, alla. of Amos Keeler, a few weeks ago. Schiff said at the time that his home was in New York. and that he was shot by an unknown negro and that he was shot by an tuknown negro, who robbed him of his money and watch. He new admits that he attempted to commit suicide and concorted the story to hide his act. He says he was out of employment and had no money, and, becoming despondent, he decided to take his life. He placed the muzzle of a revolver to his mouth and fired. Schiff is still in the Burlington County Hospital at Mount Holly. It is probable that he will be arrested as soon as he is discharged from the hospital.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 25.—It is rumored that Sanator-elect Calvin S. Brice is negotiating for the purchase of a newspaper here. Mr. Charles Q. Davis will be managing editor. For some reason this gity has long been the graveyard of Democratic dailies. A number have started out with a rush of good business, but gradually weakened and died.
